AFFORDABLE
RESIDENT QUALIFYING CRITERIA
EFFECTIVE 12/3/2020

We are delighted that you are interested in leasing at our apartment community. In order to help you in making your decision, we have listed below the criteria for qualifying as a resident with us. This development will comply with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws; including, but not limited to, consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process. Screening criteria will be applied in a manner consistent with all applicable laws, including the Texas and Federal Fair Housing Acts, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, program guidelines, and Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs rules. Our criteria is available at the leasing office and on our website at all times. A copy of our criteria will be provided to all applicants when an application is submitted and is also available upon request at any time by prospective applicants, residents, or other interested parties. Applications may be submitted at our leasing office, by mail at 300 Crump St. Ft. Worth, TX 76102, or on our website www.hillsideapartments.net. Applications submitted by mail and electronically will be deferred until all application fees and deposits are received.

FEES AND DEPOSIT: An application fee of ($40) will be charged per completed application. An application deposit of ($150) is due at the time the TAA Rental Application is submitted. The application deposit will be immediately applied toward the security deposit required for the apartment upon application approval. Any additional security deposit amount due must be paid before move-in, required security deposits are noted below. We will not hold an apartment or process an application without an application fee for each submitted application and application deposit being paid. In the event the application is declined for reasons that do not result in an application deposit being lawfully retained, it will take up to (30) days for the deposit to be refunded.

UNIT TYPE	REQUIRED SECURITY DEPOSIT
One Bedroom	$150
Two Bedroom	$250
Three Bedroom	$350

OCCUPANCY: All persons 18 or older must: A) complete an application, and B) sign the lease- unless approved as a permitted adult occupant. Emancipated minors must show written legal proof of status.

All persons residing in the apartment must be listed on the TAA Rental Application. After initial move-in no new adults may be added to the lease contract for the first 3 months of occupancy, unless accommodation due to disability is required. An occupant under age 18 may be added to an existing lease at any time without causing the household to be in violation of the occupancy limits outlined below, however a lease renewal may not be offered if this results in the household exceeding the occupancy limits specified for the unit type.

The maximum number of occupants for each floor plan are as follows:

UNIT TYPE	OCCUPANCY LIMITS*
One Bedroom	2
Two Bedroom	4
Three Bedroom	6

Per TDHCA guidelines, in addition to the occupancy limits stated above, up to one (1) additional household member may be approved per unit type.*

PERMITTED ADULT OCCUPANT: We generally require that all persons 18 or older residing in an apartment meet our rental criteria and be a lease signer on the lease. However, we recognize that in some situations, it may be appropriate to approve an adult as a permitted occupant only. Consequently, adult permitted occupants will be approved in the following situations, provided those applicants for occupancy meet our criteria for rental history (if not a first-time renter) and criminal history:

- A spouse who does not work outside the home, provided the working spouse' income satisfies the income requirements specified in this criteria.
- A member of resident's household who is over the age of 65 and does not have a regular source of income such as pension or Social Security benefits.
- A member of the resident's household who is unable to work due to a total and permanent disability.
- An adult child who is a member of the resident's household and is unable to work due to a developmental or other disability.
- A live-in aide, who is permitted by way of a reasonable accommodation request, due to disability. *Live-in aid is required to pass a criminal background check (rental and employment verifications are not necessary).
- An adult child between the ages of 18 and 26 who is a full-time student at a high school, college, university, junior college, technical school or other institution of higher learning.

INCOME: Income must be verified by one of the following options: 1) 4 most recent consecutive check stubs, 2) Income Verification form completed by the 3rd party income source, or 3) Statement of income from a third-party such as Social Security, unemployment (exclusive of any government stimulus or pandemic related supplemental amount), retirement account service, etc. Self-employed applicants must provide their 2 most recent personal bank account statements and one of the following: 1) Two most recent tax returns, or IRS transcripts, 2) If a tax return has not been filed, or if applicant has been self-employed less than two years, the applicant may provide an estimated Profit and Loss Statement from their accountant or attorney.

Income must be verifiable and effective on or before the proposed move-in date.

Total monthly income of all applicants must be (2.5) times the tenant paid portion of the monthly rent. Resident income cannot exceed maximum allowable per tax credit guidelines.

INCOME LIMITS: (circle applicable)	EFFECTIVE DATE: 4/27/2020
Household Size:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Allowable Income (50%):	$28,550	$32,600	$36,700	$40,750	$44,050	$47,300	$50,550	$53,800
Allowable Income (Initial 60%):	$34,260	$39,120	$44,040	$48,900	$52,860	$56,760	$60,660	$64,560

RENTAL HISTORY: We will review the most recent 12 months of rental history. Rental history must be verifiable, family/friends are not acceptable sources of verification. Verified rental history will determine additional deposit requirements or denial. Reasons for additional deposit or denial include: Failure to pay rent timely over the prior 12 months: a) 4-6 late payments results in double deposit required; or b) 7+ late payments will result in denial of application. Applicants will also be denied if prior management reports 4 or more disturbances (for reasons not protected by VAWA), eviction, unpaid balance due (rent, damages, etc), drug dealing/use/manufacturing, violence to persons or animals, damage to property, gambling, prostitution, or reports that applicant is not eligible for re-occupancy. Verifiable home ownership will satisfy rental history requirements.

Applicants with less than 12 months verifiable rental history, will be accepted with an additional deposit of one month’s rent.

STUDENTS: If all members of the household are full-time students, you may be required to provide verification that the household meets one of the exceptions as provided by the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Program. Exceptions are: 1) Receiving TANF assistance, 2) Job training program receiving assistance under the JTPA, 3) Single parent with dependent child, 4) Married and entitled to file a joint tax return, or 5) Previous foster care. Full time means attending/having attended an educational institution for (5) months or more during the current calendar year. Failure to meet full time student exemption may be reason for denial.

GUARANTOR: If the applicant has less than 12 months verifiable rental history or do not have sufficient income or proof of financial aid they may qualify by having a lease contract guarantor. The guarantor must have a gross monthly income of at least (6) times the monthly market rent and must meet our credit and rental history requirements included in this qualifying criteria. The guarantor must complete and sign a lease contract guaranty. The lease may be guaranteed only by a relative, educational institution or employer. Guarantors may be held responsible for the entire rent and other costs, such as damages, as long as you live at this property, even if you have roommates.

CREDIT HISTORY: Credit history for each applicant is screened through a third-party service for approval recommendation. The recommendation is determined by analyzing credit over the prior (2) years for timely payment history, age of open accounts, types of open accounts, amount of credit inquiries, as well as percentage of open credit available. Depending on the results of this analysis, each applicant will receive a score, and based on the score an applicant may be required to pay an additional deposit or the application may be denied.

Based on the analysis above, applications will receive a recommendation of approval, approval with conditions, or denied based on the scores below:

CREDIT HISTORY RECOMMENDATION	SCORE
Approval	0-69.9
Approval with Conditions (additional deposit)	70-95
Denial	95.1-100

Factors that can result in an automatic denial, regardless of age, include:

- False Social Security Number
- Eviction Judgment
- Unpaid Housing Debt
- FACTA Fraud Alert
- Open Bankruptcy

Applicant must have a check verification code of “accepted” as provided by “Telecheck” in order to enjoy the privilege of paying rent and other charges with a personal check. If the applicant fails to meet this requirement, but is otherwise approved for residency, they will be required to pay by cashier’s check or by electronic means available at this property.

In accordance with the Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act of 2003 (FACTA), all applicants must provide a government issued ID during the application process. Identification provided must match information provided in the rental application. If applicant has a “fraud alert” noted on their credit report the application will be denied until identity can be confirmed by our screening contractor using the contact method provided on the credit report.

CRIMINAL HISTORY: A criminal background report for each applicant is screened through a third-party service for approval recommendation. Criminal history which indicates that an applicant’s tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy could result in substantial physical damage to the property of owner or others will result in rejection of the application.

1. Recommend Denial for felony or misdemeanor offenses, regardless of the date of conviction or other adjudication of the offense for: murder, assault, sexual offenses (including sex offenders subject to a lifetime registration requirement) or other crimes against persons or animals.
2. Recommend Approval for felony offenses, involving theft of property, damage to property, illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance and weapons if occurred prior to (10) years from the completion of the sentence.
3. Recommended Approval for misdemeanor offenses involving theft of property, damage to property, illegal drug violation (sale or manufacture), prostitution or weapons if occurred prior to (7) years from the completion of the sentence.

In the event the criminal background check reveals any pending criminal cases, we may offer residency conditionally upon dismissal or favorable resolution of the charge. Upon conviction, the Lease Agreement will be terminated immediately.

Applicants who are denied may submit, within fourteen (14) days of the denial, verifiable evidence of mitigating factors for additional assessment including (by way of example, with no single factor being determinative): the facts or circumstances surrounding the criminal conduct; the age of the individual at the time of the conduct; evidence that the individual has maintained a good tenant history before and/or after the conviction or conduct; evidence of rehabilitation efforts and/or any other factors related to whether a specific person poses any threat to safety.

ANIMALS: Pets are welcomed at this community. We allow maximum of (2) animals per apartment, each with a ($150) deposit and ($150) non-refundable fee. Pet rent is ($10) monthly per pet. The animal(s) full grown must weigh no more than (45) pounds each. See the Pace Realty Prohibited Animal List. Management has the right to meet and approve the animal prior to executing an Animal Addendum.

Height, breed, weight and age restrictions do not apply to service/emotional support animals. Pet fees, pet rent and pet deposits are not charged for service/emotional support animals.

If disability is not evident, verification will be required for deposit/fee and “pet” rules waiver. A Verification of Disability form available in our office may be used for verification, or we may be able to accept another document provided by applicant/resident care provider deemed sufficient for this purpose. Verifications must be completed by a care provider familiar and qualified to verify a disability exists and that the disability requires a service/emotional support animal accommodation. The form should be submitted to us on letter head of the care providers office including their contact information if the verification is delivered by the resident, or delivered to us by fax, mail, or email directly from your care provider’s office.

When a service/emotional support animal is approved, a TAA Animal Addendum must be signed. As per paragraph 5 of the addendum, we will not charge animal deposits, animal’s fees, or additional rent for the service/emotional support animal. Except as provided by applicable law, all other provisions of the addendum apply to service/emotional support animals including animal rules which include: requirements for shots and licenses, disturbances, housebreaking, cages, offspring, indoor/outdoor waste areas, tethering, food/water, leash, and animal waste.

SATELLITE DISH: You must obtain approval from management prior to purchasing or arranging for installation of a satellite dish. If applicable, we will allow the installation of one satellite dish per apartment in accordance with FCC and local access laws. Not all of our apartments are suitable to satellite reception and we cannot guarantee that satisfactory reception will be received. There are limitations on how and where a satellite dish can be installed. If you intend to have a Satellite Dish during your residency with us, you must provide proof of at least ($100,000) liability renters insurance that includes a rider for satellite dishes. Proof of renewal must be provided annually. You must also have a signed Satellite Dish Addendum in your file and have paid in full an additional security deposit of ($100) as required by this addendum.

RENTERS INSURANCE: Renter’s Insurance is recommended at this community.

INTERNATIONAL RENTAL CRITERIA: Non-U.S. Citizens are welcome to apply. EQUAL HOUSING: This property is an Equal Housing Opportunity provider. We do business in accordance with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws, including but not limited to consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process. We do not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin. We provide housing in accordance with all other local laws if those laws provide greater protection than the Federal Fair Housing Act.

MOVE-IN DELAY POLICY: If management accepts the application, but is unable to allow me to occupy the premises on the date agreed because of delay caused by construction or other unforeseen circumstances, then I agree that my sole remedy shall be the return and refund of the application deposit and application fee.

VAWA: We will comply with state and federal fair housing anti-discrimination laws, and comply with the lease requirements found in the Violence Against Women Reauthorization (VAWA) Act of 2013. VAWA protects applicants/residents including any household members who are victims of domestic violence including dating violence, stalking and sexual assault from being denied residency or evicted based on acts of such violence against them, if the applicant/resident otherwise qualifies for residency.

At the time your application is submitted, we have provided you a "Notice of Occupancy Rights Under the Violence Against Women Act". This notice must also be provided to you when your application is approved or denied, and when an owner initiates a lease termination or non-renewal. By signing below, you agree you have received this notice at the time of application. If you apply for an apartment electronically, this form is attached to the Resident Qualifying Criteria which is part of the online application process.

WAITLIST POLICY: Our 50% and 60% maximum income limit waitlist will be managed as detailed in this policy. Only "potentially eligible applicants/current residents" for whom an appropriate apartment is not available are placed on a waitlist in the order in which they are received. Applicants/current residents must sign the "Waitlist Addendum to TAA Rental Application", and complete a TAA Rental Application and pay required application fee of ($40) to be added to the waitlist. Review the Preferences below related to how apartments are offered to residents/applicants when apartments come available. Our waitlist will remain open at all times.

Applicant Priority

Applicants with apartment type preferences are selected from the waiting list and may receive an opportunity for an available unit earlier than those who do not have a preference. Assigning preferences to applicants who meet certain criteria is a method intended to provide housing opportunities to applicants based upon household circumstances.

Preferences affect only the order applicants are selected from the waiting list. They do not make anyone eligible who is not otherwise eligible. Preferences are not permitted if they, in any way, interfere with affirmative marketing efforts or fair housing requirements.

Handicap Accessible Apartment- Order of Priority:

Management will give priority to current residents or applicants on our waiting list that require the handicap accessible features of an available apartment in the order specified below. Verification of disability may be required if disability is not apparent.

1. Current resident on the waiting list having a disability that requires the accessibility features of the available apartment and occupying an apartment not having such features.
2. Applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the accessibility features of the available apartment.
3. All other current residents on the waiting list.
4. All other applicants on the waiting list.

Non-Handicapped Accessible Apartment- Order of Priority:

Management will offer available non-handicap accessible apartments in the following order:

1. Current residents requesting a VAWA emergency transfer (VAWA Emergency Transfer request).
2. All other current residents on the waiting list.
3. All other applicants on the waiting list.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION AND MODIFICATIONS: It is our policy to provide reasonable accommodations and modifications upon request to all applicants/residents with disabilities. Accommodations may include changes in the method of administering policies, procedures, services, unit transfers or allowing a live-in aide. Modifications include structural changes to an apartment or common area. Requests can be made in writing or in any other equally effective method to the management office. The Property Manager will provide a response to requests for accommodation and/or modification in writing not more than (14)

calendar days after the request is received. Third party documentation of reasonable accommodation and /or modification may be required if the need is not readily apparent. Documentation will be kept confidential and used only by the Property Manager as information needed to approve the request. Specific medical or disability information will not be sought.

TRANSFER POLICY: Residents who wish to move to another apartment must request a transfer in writing, signed by the head of household and/or co-head. A transfer fee of ($175) and an application deposit for the new apartment must be paid at the time the request for transfer is approved by management to hold a new apartment. Transfer approval is contingent on 1) the acceptable result of an inspection of the current apartment, 2) all balances paid in full for the current apartment, and 3) any damages that are noted during our inspection prior to transfer are paid in full. Additionally, current residents that are transferring to a new apartment must be approved under all the requirements of the Resident Qualifying Criteria signed at the time of application submission for their current apartment.

In situations that a transfer is required as a reasonable accommodation, VAWA, or at management request, there will be no transfer fee required. At the time of move-in to the new apartment, the application deposit will be applied to the security deposit for the new apartment and any additional security deposit that is owed, or pet deposits/fees must be paid.

Criteria related to program eligibility may be applied retroactively when a market development receives a new award of tax credits, federal or state funds and a household is not eligible under the new program requirements, or when prior criteria violates federal or state law.

Security Deposits for the original apartment will be refunded within (30) days of vacating if the apartment is left clean and with no damages beyond normal wear and tear.

Approved photo ID’s include: State-issued ID Card, State-issued Driver’s License, Government-issued Passport, Permanent Resident/Alien Card, Temporary Resident Card, or other ID’s issued by State or federal government. Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act¹

To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for persons that have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.² VAWA protections are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.³ The Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs is the State agency that oversees the Housing Tax Credit “covered program”. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A U.S. Department of Housing (“HUD”) approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under a covered program listed above, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

If you are receiving assistance under the covered program, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been subject to of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under the covered program solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

The Housing Provider (“HP”) may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If HP chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, HP may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, HP must allow the tenant who is or has VAWA protections and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, HP must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, HP may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (such as HUD’s self-certification form 5382).

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, HP may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, HP may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

- (1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.
- (2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.
- (3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You have been subject to sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you have been subject to sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

HP will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and work to ensure the confidentiality of the location of any move by such victims and their families.

HP’s emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and HP must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

HP can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to “certify” that you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from HP must be in writing, and HP must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. HP may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to HP as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if HP asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form (HUD form 5382) given to you by HP with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.

² The VAWA statute uses the term victims to describe those with VAWA protections, but the Department herein refers to this class of persons as subject to protections under VAWA.

³ Housing providers in the covered programs cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, "professional") from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.
- Any other statement or evidence that HP has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, HP does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice. If HP receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), HP has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, HP does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

HP must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

HP must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of HP (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

HP must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. HP, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to HP to release the information on a time limited basis. HP needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires HP or your landlord to release the information.
- VAWA does not limit HP's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, HP cannot hold tenants who have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if HP can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If HP can demonstrate the above, HP should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for persons subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for persons subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.
